Kaliber Gaming™ SAGA Surround Sound Gaming Headphones

The SAGA was designed from the ground up to meet the demands of gamers; delivering features and quality you would expect from Dolby and Kaliber Gaming

SAGA Virtual Surround Sound Gaming Headphones

Kaliber Gaming, IOGEAR's brand of dedicated gaming products, is proud to present the new SAGA Virtual Surround Sound Gaming Headset for PS4, Xbox One S / Xbox One*, PC, Mac, and mobile devices such as smartphone and tablets. If you have ever listened to a multichannel home theater system you know how much greater the experience becomes when you unleash the depth of a surround system. For this reason the SAGA features a built-in Dolby Pro Logic IIx Virtual Surround processor that converts your stereo audio signal into a virtual multichannel experience that can be enjoyed from almost any audio source, taking your music, movie or gaming experience to the next level!

IOGEAR's new SAGA Virtual Surround Gaming Headset is a feature-packed, multi-functional headset that in addition to providing an incredible home gaming experience also makes it easy to bring your music and movies to life while on the go. Whether you're out walking the dog, at the gym, or taking a business flight, the SAGA Virtual Surround Gaming Headset provides an immersive experience that puts you in the best seat in the house. The SAGA also features a comfortable yet stylistic design, so you can enjoy everything it has to offer without looking like a sports commentator that just escaped the broadcast booth.
